

Il est né le divin enfant

$\text{♩} = 116$

The musical score consists of eight staves of music in common time, treble clef, and a key signature of one flat. The notes are represented by vertical stems with small horizontal dashes indicating pitch. Below each staff, the corresponding lyrics are written, with each syllable or group of syllables aligned with its corresponding musical note. Numerical values are placed above certain notes to indicate specific microtonal intervals from a fixed point (likely C4). The values range from -8 to +6.
